Notice to the News Trade.—

In consequence of the numerous complaints from Private Persons and the Trade that the ILLUSTRATED MIDLAND NEWS is only to be obtained with difficulty in London, Messrs. HATTON & Co. beg to state that they have this week opened a SPECIAL PUBLISHING OFFICE, at 33, ESSEX STREET, Strand, under the management of Mr. R. Watson. Henceforth all the London Agents will be supplied from that Office every Friday morning, and the paper can be had there at all times. Country Agents may now order through all the London Agents, in the same way they order their London Papers. Orders should be given early for the GRAND CHRISTMAS NUMBER, to be published on December 18th.

Head Office, 108, New Street, Birmingham.

Ladies' Educational Association, London. A Course of Twenty-four Lectures on the Elements of Geometry will be given by PROFESSOR HIRST, in the MINOR HALL, ST. GEORGE'S HALL, Langham Place, on Mondays and Fridays at 11 A.M. (beginning on January 17th), should a sufficient number of Tickets be applied for before Christmas. The Lectures will be of an Elementary character, requiring no previous knowledge of the subject; the extent to which it will ultimately be carried being dependent upon the progress of the Class.

Fee for the Course of Twenty-four Lectures, £1 11s. 6d.; Governesses, £1 1s. Ladies over 17 years of age may join this or any other Course in connection with the Association (that of Chemistry subject to the approval of the lecturing Professor), after Christmas, on the above reduced terms. Applications for Tickets to be made to the Hon. Sec.,

J. E. MYLNE, Esq., 27, Oxford Square, W.

SHARPEY MEMORIAL.

It has been resolved by a number of the Pupils and Friends of PROFESSOR SHARPEY to establish a "Sharpey Physiological Laboratory and Scholarship" in University College, as a permanent Memorial of the value of his labours as a Physiologist and a Teacher. It is further intended, that either a Portrait or a Bust of Dr. Sharpey should be placed in this Physiological Laboratory, and that, if practicable, a Portrait-Medal, also, should be struck, for distribution amongst his friends.

This twofold Memorial will, it is hoped, express and record, in a gratifying and useful manner, not only the wide appreciation of Dr. Sharpey's services as an exponent of Scientific Doctrine, but the affectionate regard entertained towards him as a Counsellor and Friend. Already £1500 has been contributed for these objects. Further subscriptions will be received, and detailed information given, by the Treasurer, Sir WILLIAM JENNER, Bart., 63, Brook Street, W., or by one of the Honorary Secretaries.

Signed, on behalf of the Committee of the "Sharpey Memorial,"

JOHN MARSHALL, 10, Savile Row, W.

J. RUSSELL REYNOLDS, 38, Grosvenor Street, W.,
Hon. Secs.

Scottish Provident Institution.

EDINBURGH—6, St. Andrew Square.
LONDON—18, King William Street, E.C.

In this Society alone, members can assure with right to share in whole profits at moderate premiums.

In other offices they may assure at rates as low, but without any prospect of additions or they may obtain the right to profits, but only by payment of excessive rates.

TRANSFER OF ASSURANCES.

From its very moderate rates this Society is peculiarly suited to the case of those who may have reasons for discontinuing their policies and assuring afresh in an Office of undoubted stability. Even after several years this may be effected without much (if any) pecuniary loss.

REALISED FUNDS, from accumulation of Premiums alone, above £1,500,000—the increase in 1868 being no less than £133,000.

SUBSISTING ASSURANCES, £65,500,000.

For full information as to INVESTMENTS see the Annual Reports, of which Copies may be had on application.

The "Insurance Register" (Kent and Co., London) gives inquiries the means of judging as to the financial position of the various offices. The facts there brought together show that no Office gives evidences of greater progress or stability than the

ALLNUTT'S FRUIT LOZENGES,

For Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Hoarseness, &c.,

Prepared solely from

THE BLACK CURRANT.

These Lozenges, in which the acidity of the Black Currant is concentrated in the highest degree, afford great relief to Aged and Consumptive Persons, particularly at night. Public Speakers and Singers also find them very beneficial. A few, dissolved in water, make a pleasant Cooling Drink in Scarlet and other Fevers.

As attempts to pass off other Black Currant Lozenges as equally efficacious are numerous, be careful to ask for "ALLNUTT'S FRUIT LOZENGES," prepared only by the Proprietor, FREDERICK ALLNUTT (late ALLNUTT & SON, Members of the Society of Apothecaries, London), 12 and 13, Chapel Row, Portsea.

Sold only in Boxes, at 1s. 1½d. each, and in larger Boxes (one containing three), at 2s. 6d. each, by one or more Patent Medicine Vendors in each town in the United Kingdom. Where also may be had, prepared by the above,

AROMATIC FUMIGATING OR PASTILE PAPER.

This article, from the certainty of its smouldering and its great fragrance, is found invaluable in the sick room, or on a sea voyage, in removing the closeness of the room or cabin, and in overcoming any unpleasant effluvia, from whatever cause arising. A small piece allowed to smoulder in the dining-room towards the close of the meal renders the apartment more agreeable.

Sold in Packets, 6d. each. A packet forwarded free by Post on receipt of Six Stamps.

"For 20 years I have recommended Dr. Locock's Wafers as very excellent for Coughs, Colds, and all Disorders of the Chest and Lungs. I take them myself during the Winter."

The above is from Mr. W. IRELAND, Chemist, Egremont, Cumberland.

"The reader must not be deceived by the title of this volume into a supposition that it is a meagre mixture of chronology and astronomical calculations. We have, it is true, the usual guide to the sun's revolutions and the moon's changes, and the rivers' ebb and flow, with calendars for regular churchgoing people, sportsmen, and men of business; but beyond this lies a mass of information of so diversified a character that it would be impossible to describe it within reasonable limits. Let it suffice that there is scarcely a single subject to which there is occasion frequently to refer that will not be found treated in this invaluable compendium"—Army and Navy Gazette.

"Why did not somebody teach me the constellations, and make me at home in the starry heavens, which are always overhead, and which I don't half know to this day?"—THOMAS CARLYLE.

OGIER THE DANE.

"A thorough purity of thought and language characterises Mr. Morris; . . . and 'The Earthly Paradise' is thereby adapted for conveying to our wives and daughters a refined, though not diluted, version of those wonderful creations of Greek fancy which the rougher sex alone is permitted to imbibe at first hand.

"We have enjoyed such a thorough treat in this, in every sense, rare volume, that we heartily commend it to our readers."—Saturday Review.

"The book must be read by any one who wishes to know what it is like; and few will read it without recognising its author for a poet who has struck a new vein, and who, preferring his art above popularity, has achieved a work which will yet be popular wherever true poetry is understood."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"It is not too bold to anticipate for 'The Earthly Paradise' a longer duration in the minds and hearts of men than perhaps any contemporary verse."—Fortnightly Review.

Fourth Edition, crown 8vo., cloth, price 8s.

THE LIFE AND DEATH OF JASON.

A Poem, in Seventeen Books.

"Morris's 'Jason' is in the purest, simplest, most idiomatic English; full of freshness, full of life, vivid in landscape, vivid in human action, worth reading at the cost of many leisure hours even to a busy man."—The Times.

Crown 8vo., cloth, price 8s.

THE STORY OF GRETTIR THE STRONG.

Translated from the Icelandic of the Grettis Saga (one of the most remarkable prose works of ancient Icelandic Literature), Handbook of Optics. By Dr. Lardner.

Sixth Thousand. Revised and Completed to the Present Time by T. OLVER HARDING, B.A., of University College, London. 298 Illustrations. Small 8vo. 5s.

In making the changes necessary to embody the results of modern investigation, care has been taken to follow as closely as possible the manner of the original, so that the work might be preserved with its character unaltered, and, as nearly as practicable, in the state in which it is to be presumed, its author would have placed it had he lived to continue it.

DR. WILLIAM SMITH'S CLASSICAL DICTIONARIES.

SUBSCRIPTION EDITION.

THESE important Dictionaries—written by the most eminent Scholars, and Edited by Dr.
WILLIAM SMITH—have been long acknowledged to be indispensable to every Library and every Student. But their cost has hitherto prevented many from possessing them, and the Proprietors have therefore decided upon placing them within the reach of a much larger number of readers, by issuing a Subscription Edition, at the rate of

ONE GUINEA EACH VOLUME.

THE SIX VOLUMES, HANDSOMELY BOUND IN CLOTH, published at £11 17s. 6d. . . . 6 6 0
Or the Dictionaries separately, as under:—
DICTIONARY OF GREEK AND ROMAN AN-TIQUITIES. Published at £2 2s. . . . 1 1 0
DICTIONARY OF BIOGRAPHY AND MYTHO-LOGY. 3 Vols. Published at £3 15s. 6d. . . . 3 3 0

THE WAVERLEY NOVELS.

CENTENARY EDITION.

In Twenty-five Monthly Volumes,

Crown 8vo., price 3s. 6d. each.

In view of the Centenary of SIR WALTER SCOTT's birthday, which takes place on the 15th of August, 1871, the above New Edition of the Waverley Novels has been projected.

The work will be published in Monthly Volumes, commencing on the 1st of January, 1870; and, if found practicable, the whole set will be completed on the Centenary day.

The Publishers have endeavoured in this Edition to supply a want which has often been expressed for a set of the Waverley Novels, printed in a legible type, yet handy in size—and to secure this end a special type has been cast for the purpose.

The opportunity has also been taken to have the works carefully compared with the Author's interleaved copy (in the Publishers' possession), containing his manuscript notes and corrections; and from this source several annotations of considerable interest have been obtained, which have not before been published.

In addition to these, some minor notes of an explanatory kind have been introduced, while a special Glossary has been added to such of the Novels as require it, and each volume will contain a separate Index.

A Prospectus, with specimen pages, will be inserted in the principal Magazines for next month.

EDINBURGH, December, 1869.

ADAM & CHARLES BLACK.

HODDER AND STOUGHTON'S NEW WORKS.

NEW ART GIFT BOOK for CHRISTMAS.

PICTORIAL SCENES from the PIL-GRIM'S PROGRESS. Drawn by CLAUDE
REIGNIER CONDER. In imperial 4to., elegantly bound, price 15s., gilt edges,

"A volume of very striking views, in which the landscapes, rather than the figures, of Bunyan's narrative are chiefly brought forth. No book abounds in more varied, sublime, and beautiful prospects, so to speak, than the 'Pilgrim's Progress;' and Mr. Conder has realised some of them extremely well. Many are pervaded by a fine sense of remoteness, unreality, and strangeness, as though they really belonged to the land of fable, mystery, and symbolism.
... Those we have mentioned are full of power, fancy, and invention."—Daily News, Dec. 3.

"Mr. C. R. Conder's 'Pictorial Scenes' will be found to help the slowest imagination in realizing more vividly than heretofore the wonderful visions of John Bunyan."—The Times, Dec. 6.

The EARLY YEARS of CHRISTIANITY.

By E. DE PRESSENSÉ, D.D., Author of
"Jesus Christ: His Times, Life, and Work."
In 8vo., price 12s., cloth.

"The lofty and animated eloquence which he has always at command, and a certain happy faculty of finding even in doctrinal discussions some picturesque traits, some feature with life and colour, have enabled him to overcome the difficulties which stand in the way of a popular history of the Christian life and literature of the first century."— Contemporary Review.

A NEW EDITION of Dr. PRESSENSÉ'S MYSTERY of SUFFERING, and other Discourses, is now ready. Crown 8vo.,
3s. 6d., cloth.

THE STATE of the BLESSED DEAD.

Advent Sermons by the Very Rev. HENRY
ALFORD, D.D., Dean of Canterbury.
Square 16mo., 1s. 6d., cloth.

A HOMILETIC ANALYSIS of the GOS-PEL according to MATTHEW. By JOSEPH
PARKER, D.D., Author of "Ecce Deus," &c. With an Introductory Essay on the Life of Jesus Christ, considered as an Appeal to the Imagination. Crown 8vo., 7s. 6d., cloth.

SAINT MARK'S GOSPEL. A New Translation, with Notes and Practical Lessons. By Professor J. H. GODWIN, New College, London; Author of "The Apocalypse of St. John," &c. Crown 8vo., 4s. 6d., cloth.

LECTURES on the FIRST and SECOND EPISTLES OF PETER. By JOHN LILLIE, D.D., Author of "Lectures on the Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians," &c.
In 8vo., price 12s., cloth.

The PROPHECIES of OUR LORD and HIS APOSTLES. A Series of Discourses delivered in the Cathedral Church of Berlin.
By W. HOFFMANN, D.D., Chaplain in Ordinary to the King of Prussia. In crown 8vo., price 7s. 6d., cloth.

"These discourses are worthy of the highest commendation.
They are characterised by extreme simplicity of style, and abound in richly suggestive reflections, penetrative thoughts, and a fine analysis of human feelings and motives."—Contemporary Review.

Cambridge Greek and Latin Texts.

Carefully Printed from the Best Editions.

This series is intended to supply for the use of Schools and Students cheap and accurate editions of the Classics, which shall be superior in mechanical execution to the small German editions now current in this country, and more convenient in form. As the Editors have formed their texts from a careful examination of the best editions extant, it is believed that no texts better for general use can be found. The volumes are printed at the Cambridge University Press, and are issued neatly bound in cloth.

New Volume now Ready,

DEIGHTON, BELL, & CO., CAMBRIDGE.

Plato's Apology of Socrates and Crito, with Notes Critical and Exegetical, Introductory Notices, and a Logical Analysis of the Apology. By WILLIAM WAGNER, Ph. D. Small 8vo., 4s. 6d. "Dr. Wagner, who has already established his reputation in England by an edition of the Ætularia of Plautus, and by a more recent edition of Terence, has now produced a commentary on the Apology and Crito, which deserves the attention of English scholars, and the special gratitude of English schoolmasters."—Cambridge University Gazette.

Plautus, Ætularia. With Notes, Critical and Exegetical, and an Introduction on Plautian Prosody. By W. WAGNER, Ph. D. 8vo., 9s. "The exegetical commentary is distinguished by the same high qualities as the introduction, and the two form a most valuable contribution to recent scholarship. It would, indeed, be difficult to exaggerate the worth of such works as these."—Reader.

Terence. With Notes Critical and Explanatory. By WILHELM WAGNER, Ph. D. Post 8vo., 10s. 6d.

"Dr. Wagner's edition of Terence, though elegantly got up, is quite unpretending in size and appearance, and yet we are much mistaken if it does not hasten on and greatly contribute to that more thorough study of the earlier Latin poetry, of which we can perceive many signs here, as well as in Germany, and even France."—Cambridge University Gazette.

Theocritus. With Short Critical and Explanatory Notes. By F. A. PALEY. Second Edition, corrected and enlarged, and containing the newly-discovered Idyll. Small 8vo., 4s. 6d.

[Just published.]

"It is the best, as well as the briefest, of Commentaries on the Syracusan bard; and though, as those who are familiar with the Idylls know, they abound in difficulties both of text and interpretation, candid examination will show that in this edition no such difficulties are left unattempted, and few unsolved."—Saturday Review.

"It is, as we commenced by saying, a thoroughly well-edited book; a credit to its editor and to his University: a model in many of its features for others to imitate in their editorial labours: a proof that it is not the quantity but the quality which imparts worth."—Museum.

Theocritus. Translated into English VERSE by C. S. CALVERLEY, late Fellow of Christ's College, Author of "Translations into English and Latin." Small 8vo., 7s. 6d.

"As we turn over his pages, we meet at odd corners little features and touches that remind us of his earlier poems and translations, and recognise sparks of the same happy humour and perception which at once gave him a rank above mere translators."—Saturday Review.

"Mr. Calverley's version is the best to which our language has given birth."—Oxford University Magazine.

By the same,

Translations into English and Latin.

Post 8vo., 7s. 6d.

Verses and Translations. Third Edition, revised. Fcap. 8vo., 5s.

"A little volume full of exceeding great promise. C. S. C. possesses many of the highest attributes of a versifier. . . . It needs no gift of second-sight to foretell that C. S. C. will again be heard of."—Spectator.

HURST & BLACKETT'S NEW WORKS.

VOLUME II. of

Her Majesty's Tower. By W. HEPWORTH DIXON. Dedicated, BY EXPRESS PERMISSION, TO THE QUEEN. Demy 8vo., 15s.

FOURTH EDITION, NOW READY.

"Mr. Dixon dashes off the scenes of Tower history with great spirit. His descriptions are given with such terseness and vigour that we should spoil them by any attempt at condensation. The greater part of the second volume is occupied with the story of the Gunpowder Plot. The narrative is extremely interesting, and will repay perusal. Another cause célèbre possessed of a perennial interest is the murder of Sir Thomas Overbury by Lord and Lady Somerset. Mr. Dixon tells the tale skilfully. In conclusion, we may congratulate the author on this, his latest work. Both volumes are decidedly attractive, and throw much light on our national history, but we think the palm of superior interest must be awarded to the second volume."—The Times, Oct. 22.

Life and Remains of Robert Lee, D.D., Minister of Old Greyfriars, Dean of the Chapel Royal of Holyrood, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen, &c. By ROBERT HERBERT STORY, Minister of Rossneath. With an Introductory Chapter by Mrs. OLIPHANT, Author of "The Life of the Rev. Edward Irving." 2 vols., 8vo., with Portrait, 30s.

"This memoir fulfils one of the best uses of biography in making us acquainted not only with a man of remarkable character, talent, and energy, but in throwing light upon a very distinct phase of society. It is a very curious and important chapter of contemporary history, as well as the story of a good and able life devoted to the service of God and man."—Spectator.

Francis the First, and other Historic Studies. By A. BAILLIE COCHRANE. 2 vols., 21s.

A Book about the Clergy. By J. C. JEAFFRESON, Author of "A Book about Doctors," "A Book about Lawyers," &c. 2 vols., 8vo. [Just ready.]

Cheap Edition of Robert Falconer. By GEORGE MACDONALD, LL.D. 5s., bound and illustrated.

THE NEW NOVELS.

The Unkind Word, and other Stories. By the Author of "John Halifax." 2 vols.

"The author of 'John Halifax' has written some interesting and fascinating stories, but we can call to mind nothing from her pen that has a more enduring charm than the fresh and graceful sketches in these volumes. Such a character as Jessie, in 'The Unkind Word,' stands out from a crowd of heroines as the type of all that is truly noble, pure, and womanly."—United Service Magazine.

Debenham's Vow. By AMELIA B. EDWARDS, Author of "Barbara's History." 3 vols.

"There is everything to amuse and interest in this book. There is a wealth of excellent and spirited delineations of persons and events, and positively new ground broken as the scene of the incidents of a novel."—Post.

Noblesse Oblige. By SARAH TYTLER. Author of "Citoyenne Jacqueline." 3 vols.

"Whatever Miss Tytler publishes is worth reading. Her book is original and rich in observation. Her heroes and heroines are pure and noble studies in English life of the better sort."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Guy Vernon. By the Hon. Mrs. WOULFE. 3 vols.

"In these pages there is a freshness and healthy strength which give interest and value to 'Guy Vernon.'"—Post.

Viola. By the Author of "Caste." 3 vols. "A clever and most carefully written novel."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Handsomely bound in cloth extra, silk headband, &c., 41 1s. In half morocco, Roxburgh style, or tree marble calf extra, 30s. In morocco extra, 42s.

"When we say that the list of artists includes the names of Messrs. Harrison Weir, Birket Foster, J. C. Horsley, Charles Keene, Percival Skelton, John Gilbert, Gustave Doré, and E. Duncan, and that each of these appears to have done his very best, and to have worked in harmony, we have said enough to recommend the re-issue of this volume far and wide. The poems are taken mostly from writers of the last three centuries, and the illustrations amount to upwards of 300."—Times.

"If any one can guide us through the almost inextricable mazes of this labyrinth, it is he. As a chronicler he possesses all the requisite knowledge, and—what is nearly, if not quite, as important—the necessary caution. He never attempts to explain that which is hopelessly corrupt or obscure; he does not confound twilight with daylight; he warns the reader repeatedly that he is standing on shaking ground; he has no framework of theory into which he presses his facts."—Saturday Review (in an Article on Vol. II.).

A DICTIONARY OF DOCTRINAL AND HISTORICAL THEOLOGY,

BY VARIOUS WRITERS.

Edited by the Rev. JOHN HENRY BLUNT, M.A., F.S.A.,

Editor of "The Annotated Book of Common Prayer."

This is the first portion of the "Summary of Theology and Ecclesiastical History," which Messrs. Rivington propose to publish in eight volumes as a "Thesaurus Theologicus" for the Clergy and Reading Laity of the Church of England. It consists of original articles on all the important Doctrines of Theology, and on other questions necessary for their further illustration, the articles being carefully written with a view to modern thought, as well as a respect for ancient authority. The Dictionary will be completed in two parts.

PART I.—HEATHENISM AND MOSAISM.

"The ability which Mr. Gould displays in the treatment of a topic which branches out in so many directions, and requires such precise handling, is apparent. His pages abound with the results of large reading and calm reflection. The man of culture, thought, philosophic cast, is mirrored in the entire argument. The book is sound and healthy in tone. It excites the reader's interest, and brightens the path of inquiry opened to his view. The language, too, is appropriate, neat, lucid, often happy, sometimes wonderfully terse and vigorous."—Athenæum.

ANCIENT CLASSICS FOR ENGLISH READERS.

EDITED BY

REV. W. LUCAS COLLINS,

Author of "Etemiana," "The Public Schools," &c.

ADVERTISEMENT.

It is proposed to give, in these little volumes, some such introduction to the great writers of Greece and Rome as may open to those who have not received a classical education—or in whose case it has been incomplete and fragmentary—a fair acquaintance with the contents of their writings, and the leading features of their style.

The constant allusions in our own literature, and even in our daily press, to the works of the ancient classical authors, and the familiarity with the whole dramatis personæ of ancient history and fable which modern writers on all subjects assume on the part of their readers, make such an acquaintance almost necessary for those who care not only to read but to understand.

Even in the case of readers who have gone through the regular classical course in their day, this acquaintance, if honest confession were made, would be found very imperfect. It is said, of course, that "every English gentleman reads Horace," but this is one of those general assertions which rest upon very loose ground. An ordinary observer of the habits of the class might find himself somewhat at a loss for instances.

In the case of ladies, and of the large body of general readers who have received either no classical education, or a very imperfect one, probably less is now known of Homer, Virgil, or Horace, than in the days when Pope's, Dryden's, and Francis's translations were first published, and took their place for the time on every literary table.

There appears a strong probability that the study of Greek and Latin, which has so long been our exclusive idea of a "liberal" education, will hereafter be confined within a narrower circle. Yet some knowledge of the ancient classics must continue to be the key to much of our best English literature. If, as some educational reformers suggest, a systematic course of English reading be substituted for Latin and Greek in our "middle-class" schools, such a training will necessarily involve the careful study of the masters of English thought and style, and more especially of those earlier authors whose taste was formed very much upon the old classical models, and whose writings are full of allusions to their characters and imagery.

It may be said that we have translations of all the best and most popular of the classical authors, and that many of these are admirable in their execution. This is quite true. The Iliad, the Odyssey, the Æneid, Horace, and some of the Greek Dramatists, have lately found translators who, in point of taste and general accuracy, leave little to be desired. But the results of their work will be best enjoyed and valued by those whose acquaintance with the originals enables them to appreciate not only the positive beauty of the English version, but its relative merit as conveying the spirit and sense of the Greek or Latin author. Even the best translation (especially of the classical poets) may fail to have a continuous interest for the merely modern reader, unless he has some previous familiarity with the argument of the work, the personages introduced, and the characteristics of the age in which the scene and action lie.

To meet, in some degree, such want as it has been here sought to explain, is the aim of the present series. It appeals to a circle outside that of classical scholarship; though possibly some who have all legal claim to rank as scholars, but who now stand rather on the "retired list" of that service, may in these pages meet some old acquaintances whom they have almost forgotten. If, in any case, they find our re-introduction unsatisfactory, none would advise them more heartily than we do to renew the old personal intercourse for themselves.

Volume I., containing

THE ILIAD OF HOMER,

will be published on 1st January.

The following Authors, by various Contributors, are in preparation:—

WORKS BY

JOHN H. JELLETT, B.D.,

Fellow of Trinity College, Dublin, Professor of Natural Philosophy in the University of Dublin, and President of the Royal Irish Academy.

An Examination of some of the Moral DIFFICULTIES OF THE OLD TESTAMENT. Five Sermons, preached before the University of Dublin. 8vo. Price 4s. 6d.

"This little volume is characterised by a straightforward honesty of reasoning, which grapples fairly with all difficulties, and admits the strong points of the opponent's case to full consideration, disguising nothing, straining nothing, understanding nothing, but with considerable breadth and power dealing ably with questions that are, indeed, among the most really serious of the day. . . . There is an elaborate note in the Appendix to the book, demolishing, with adequate learning and conclusive reasoning, the preposterous and desperate theory of M. Comte,—that the Jews were a colony of the Egyptian priesthood, specially planted by them to perpetuate their esoteric doctrine of Monotheism. We commend it to any reader who wishes to see to what pitiful shifts unbelief is driven, and how a plain straightforward examination of the actual evidence tears those shifts to pieces."—Guardian.

"The ability and known earnestness of character of Mr. Jellet add weight to any sermons preached, on questions of such difficulty and difference of opinion as those discussed in the volume before us. The subjects treated are the Slaughter of Siera by Jael; the Sacrifice of Isaac; and the Destruction of the Canaanites; and it would be impossible for us, in the space at our disposal, to give even an abstract of Mr. Jellet's positions. The ground on which he treads is admitted by him to be holy, and is treated with reverent respect; and with an entire absence of that foolhardy presumption which marks many criticisms of our day on the inspired Word of God. In examining and weighing evidence for and against opposed views, Mr. Jellet shows no preconceived prejudice; nor does he indicate any desire to abolish or deny any part of the faith once for all delivered to the Saints. But to our mind the best part of his work is that portion of the appendix which examines into, attacks, and utterly demolishes the theory of Comte as to the origin of Judaism. This alone will commend the book before us to all who believe in the historical truth of the Sacred narrative regarding God's dealings with His people Israel."—Irish Churchman.

"We like the Book exceedingly as a whole, and strongly recommend its perusal to all who feel anxious in consequence of such difficulties as are considered in it."—Journal of Sacred Literature.

NEW EDITION OF MILL ON THE MIND.

Just published, in 2 vols., 8vo., price 28s., cloth,

Analysis of the Phenomena of the HUMAN MIND. By JAMES MILL. A New Edition, with Notes Illustrative and Critical, by ALEXANDER BAIN, ANDREW FINDLATER, and GEORGE GROTE. Edited, with additional Notes, by JOHN STUART MILL.

"The abundance and variety of the notes, apart from the interest of the contributions on the ground of independent authority of the writers on the subjects treated, will entitle the edition to a place among the great instruments of mental training. The student sees two or three minds at work instead of one, and the stimulus to read critically instead of lazily and with acquiescence, as one is so much tempted to do, is greater than in the ordinary case. Mr. Mill's eulogy of his father in the preface is one of the best sort of contributions to biography—the note of a man of eminence on the character of another man of eminence with whom he had long and most intimate relations."—Economist.

Thesaurus of English Words and PHRASES, Classified and Arranged so as to Facilitate the Expression of Ideas and Assist in Literary Composition. By P. M. ROGET, M.D., F.R.S., F.R.C.P., &c.

"Dr. Roget's 'Thesaurus' is full of suggestions, and exhibits, as no dictionary can, the extraordinary richness and flexibility of the English language. We recommend its use to all writers who desire to have at command a copious vocabulary and the entire resources of the English tongue, whether for speaking, public or conversational, for translating, or for original written composition."—Eclectic Review.

"A most useful manual of reference to aid the memory and render its resources of language instantly available. A glance at a page of this 'Thesaurus' may often save much time and mental effort: an entire train of thought with its ramifications being exhibited in orderly survey: thereby not only facilitating the labour of composition, but adding greatly to its force and accuracy."—John Bull.

Church Association,

To uphold the Doctrines, Principles, and Order of the United Church of England and Ireland, and to counteract the efforts now being made to pervert her teaching on essential points of the Christian faith, or assimilate her Services to those of the Church of Rome.

SPECIAL APPEAL FOR FUNDS

BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CHURCH ASSOCIATION.

THE friends of the Church Association are probably not aware of its financial position, the work to be done, and the funds required. The Guarantee Fund of £52,000 has enabled the Council to carry on without difficulty legal prosecutions and Parliamentary action, but this Fund is applicable to no other purpose.

The duties, however, into which the Council have been led are more extensive, and in some respects more important, than the institution of Legal and Parliamentary action. The Council found the minds of a large body both of the Clergy and Laity of England affected with Romish dogmas, through the books, catechisms, tracts, magazines, and newspapers of the Ritualistic party, the circulation of which has extended over a period of upwards of thirty years.

Such a flood of Romish error can only be effectively met by the rapid circulation of Protestant truth, through suitable publications, through the use of the Press, and through an extensive agency; and, though much has been done already in establishing 130 branches, much more must be done, till Associations are organized in all parts of England; till Public Meetings are multiplied, and by Speeches; Tracts, Sermons, and Lectures, the real facts are made known to every one in England. So comprehensive a movement cannot be carried on without large expense, and it must be remembered that no part of the Guarantee Fund can be applied to these purposes.

The contributions to their General Fund are at present quite inadequate to meet these pressing calls. The Council therefore earnestly appeal to their friends for increased funds to carry on with promptitude and vigour a work so essential to the preservation of our Reformed Church, which must fail of its full effect unless far larger sums are placed at the disposal of the Council.

ANTIQUITIES OF HERALDRY,

Collected from the Literature, Coins, Gems, Vases, and other Monuments of

PRE-CHRISTIAN AND MEDÆVAL TIMES.

By WILLIAM SMITH ELLIS, ESQ.,

OF THE MIDDLE TEMPLE.

With 20 Plates, comprising 54 Figures of Roman Legionary Ensigns; 30 Heraldic Shields from Greek and Etruscan Vases; Pre-historic and Ancient Chinese devices; 46 Armorial Seals, 1150-1200; Japanese Heraldic Flags (coloured); Shields and Banners of the Ancient Mexicans (coloured), etc.

"As a work on the antiquities of heraldry it has every claim to our attentive consideration."—Herald and Genealogist.

"Mr. Ellis traces the origin of heraldry in the most remote antiquity, and places the beginning deeper in the night of time than any modern writers, whose opinions are worth considering, have ventured to do. Mr. Ellis boldly takes up a position which is directly adverse to that of these writers [viz., Boutell, Seton, Nichols, and Planché] . . . In conclusion, we desire to commend to the student the care, extensive reading, and earnestness with which his work has been compiled, and especially to call attention to the chapter on the Heralry of Mythology, to the peculiarly ingenious essay on the modes of transmission of heraldic symbols from ancient to modern times, and to the Appendix on the Unity or Diversity of the Origin of Heraldic Devices and of Ornamentation. Whether or not the student accepts Mr. Ellis's conclusions, he will find his book well worth reading."—Athenæum.

NELSON'S BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS.

SUPERB GIFT BOOK. Beautifully Illustrated.
Earth and Sea. From the French of LOUIS FIGUIER. Translated, Edited, and Enlarged by W. H. D. ADAMS. 250 Engravings by FREEMAN, GIACOMELLI, VAN D'ARGENT, PRIOR, FOULQUIER, RIOU, LAPLANTE, and other Artists. Imp. 8vo., cloth and gold. Price 15s.

This work will be found a valuable addition to the library, from the interesting character of its contents; and a handsome ornament for the drawing-room table, from its elegant getting-up and beautiful illustrations. Altogether, it is perhaps unrivalled as a Gift Book. It treats of the Mountains, and the Valleys, and the Great Plains; of Earthquakes and Volcanoes; of Seas, Lakes, and Rivers; and surveys in a comprehensive and lucid manner the entire province of Physical Geography. Every page contains some important fact, embodied in clear and graphic language.

The only COMPLETE EDITION of The Swiss Family Robinson;
 OR, ADVENTURES OF A SHIPWRECKED FAMILY ON A DESOLATE ISLAND. A New and Unabridged Translation. With an Introduction from the French of CHARLES NODIER. 700 Pages. 300 Engravings. Crown 8vo., cloth and gold. Price 6s.

This is an UNABRIDGED EDITION of a book which has always and deservedly been a favourite with the young, but which has generally been issued in a mutilated form. It has been entirely re-translated, and is now issued in all its original fulness, with Three Hundred Illustrations. In the interest of its story it ranks next to "Robinson Crusoe," while it conveys an amount of information on Natural History subjects to which "Robinson Crusoe" makes no pretensions. "We never met the child yet whom this story did not fascinate; and if some publisher would have it translated in its old fulness, we believe it would have a success like that of 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.'"—The Spectator, July 10, 1869.
